Sermon Notes: Can you identify the main point, the subpoints and application of today's message?

Life Group Questions

1. Have you ever been complacent with something powerful or dangerous? What were or could be the result?
2. Recount the three scenes of Acts 10. Which verses in Acts 10:1 – 11:18 do you think are key to the meaning of the passage?
3. If you were sharing your faith with someone, is there a verse that would spring to mind to convey the message? Brainstorm some great Gospel verses!
4. What significance do you think Acts 10 would have had for the early church? What significance does it have for us?
5. Have you ever thought, “No one wants me to tell them the Gospel.”? Read John 16:8. What does this tell us about the Spirit’s role in the world and how does that encourage us to think about sharing our faith?
6. What was the meaning of the vision Peter received in Acts 10:11-16? (Cf. Acts 10:28, 34-35; Lev 11) How quickly can we remove long held beliefs that are obstacles to the faith?
7. How do we prevent familiarity with the Gospel from making us bored of the Gospel or desensitised to its power and need in the world? How do we make Gospel familiarity breed fervour not forgetfulness?
