Life Group Questions

1. Conversation starter: Have you been involved in a sport or hobby to the point that has separated you from your usual friends? What was it and how did it go?
2. Read Daniel 7:13-14 and compare with Mark 2:10. How would you have responded if you were there when Jesus made this claim? How does your opinion change after a man is healed in front of you?
3. Read John 15:19. We are in the world but not of the world. How are you going walking that line? Are you different from the world because you are a disciple? Do you still engage with the world because they need the Truth?
4. In your life, what makes it clear that you are a disciple of Jesus? How is your life different from unbelievers around you? How can you do this better?
5. Generally speaking when it comes to how you interact with people would you say you act with more grace or truth? (Allow people to get away with lots or confront them)
6. Which of the four reasons you will face increased opposition did you choose to work on this week? How's it going? How can you help each other? What can you pray for?
